HOC SIGNO FORTUNA.

BALTIMORE, FRIDAY, February 20, 1824.

Immensely Rich Wheels.

The Seventeenth drawing of the GRAND STATE LOTTERY took place yesterday afternoon, agreeably to notice given in our last Register. A very great concourse of spectators attended in anticipation of the Capitals, or at least some of them, coming out; but remarkable to say, nothing was drawn higher than one of One Thousand Dollars, as will be noticed by the official list on the next page—the fortunate No. 24296, is held in this city—the 100 dollar prize, and one of the 50's were sold in Shares, and are all held by distant adventurers, residing at Newville, Pa.—Culpeper Ct. H. Va.—Wooster, Ohio—and Milledgeville, Savannah and Goshen, Georgia—having been forwarded by mail from COHEN'S OFFICE. When the large prizes are drawn we anticipate the pleasure also of announcing a full proportion of them to our friends in the country—whose orders, as heretofore, will always meet prompt attention.

Rise of Tickets.

Distant adventurers are hereby respectfully notified, that in consequence of the present very interesting situation of the GRAND STATE LOTTERY, and the great demand for Tickets, which are now becoming scarce, the price of Tickets will be advanced to TWENTY DOLLARS on Thursday the 25th of NEXT MONTH, until which day, the Commissioners will defer the drawing, in order that those at a distance may have a full opportunity of procuring Tickets at the present rate of FIFTEEN DOLLARS; and also allowing them time for the renewal of small prizes, which they may have drawn heretofore. ORDERS should be immediately forwarded to COHEN'S OFFICE.

No time should be lost in sending on for Tickets or Shares, not only on account of securing chances in time, but also for the purpose of procuring them before the advance takes place.—All orders dated and post-marked previous to the 25th next month, (March,) will be supplied at the present rates, viz:

Tickets, - $15 00	Quarters, - $3 75
Halves, - 7 50	Eighths, - 1 87

Orders from any part of the United States, either by mail (post paid) or by private conveyance, enclosing the Cash or prizes in any of the Baltimore Lotteries, will meet the same prompt and punctual attention as if on personal application, addressed to J. I. COHEN, JR.—BALTIMORE.

The Register.—The circulation of this paper is now extended to every section of the Union, and in order to ensure its safe conveyance, particular pains are taken in the packing and mailing; should it however, at any time fail in reaching any of our customers, we beg to be informed of it immediately, in order that a duplicate may be sent on without delay. It is published immediately after each drawing.

Lottery Commissioners.—The present Commissioners, James L. Hawkins, Nathl. F. Williams and James B. Ringgold Esquires, have been again duly re-appointed by the Governor and Council for the ensuing twelve months.

Important Notice.—Distant adventurers may at all times, with confidence, forward their remittances to COHEN'S OFFICE, for if the Great Capitals in the scheme should be drawn when their orders arrive, and the state of the wheel not justify an investment, the amount enclosed will be returned by the first mail.

A man calling himself Rockwell, was last week brought before the Judges of the City Court, of Baltimore, charged with attempting to pass a check, purporting to be drawn by Alexander Johnson, Cashier of the Bank of Pittsburg, directed to the Cashier of the Schuylkill Bank, which on examination is believed by good judges to be a forgery. On searching his trunk and person a number of checks, drafts, and promissory notes were found, amounting to between fifteen and twenty thousand dollars.—A slip of paper found in his pocket book, contained only the name of Alexr Johnson Jr which is believed to be a genuine signature of the Cashier—all the other papers are supposed to be forged. He has been committed for trial.—Gaz.

Marquis de La Fayette.—The Hon. James Brown, Minister to France, who is on the eve of sailing from New York, in the U. S. ship Cyane, for France, is the bearer of a letter from the President of the United States, addressed to Gen. LA FAYETTE, inviting him to visit the United States. Should the General have made up his mind to sail in the course of the Spring, we learn he has the offer of the United States' frigate Constitution, (old Iron Sides,) Capt. Jones, which vessel will have received orders to proceed to any port in France which the General may select for embarkation.

Latest News from England.

By the arrivals at New York of the packet ships Leeds and John Wells, Liverpool papers to the 8th January, have been received.

The packet ship New York, Capt. MAXWELL, arrived at Liverpool, from New York, on the morning of the 1st. of January, after the splendid passage of fifteen days and sixteen hours from city to city.

ENGLAND.—The President's message was received in Liverpool, and published at length in the papers there. The Editors speak highly of it, and consider the allusion which it contains to South America, as setting at rest the question respecting the long talked of attempt by the "Holy Alliance" to reduce that country to its former degraded state. "There will be no attempt made, (says the Liverpool Advertiser) it may be confidently affirmed, to interfere with the present condition of those countries, when it is known that such interference would be viewed by the U. States as a just cause of war on her part with any power attempting such interference."

In speaking of this document, the Editors of the London Morning Chronicle observes.—The communication of the Chief Office bearer, of the Great Republic to the Legislature, at this critical period, when the ambition of Kings, not satisfied with the calamity which it has occasioned in Europe, threatens to rekindle the flames of war throughout the Western hemisphere, was looked forward to with the utmost anxiety.—It is worthy of the occasion and of the people destined to occupy so large a space in the future history of the world. So full of wisdom and just ideas, there is no part which can afford more genuine satisfaction to every civilized nation, than the notice which it takes of the extraordinary and gallant struggle made at present by the Greeks, in the cause of general independence.

The King of England is said to enjoy as good health at present as he has done for the last ten years; but the Duke of York was rather in a state of ill health. Mr. Canning had recovered so far as to be able to transact business at his office in town. Mr. Rush, our Minister, had recently been with him for a considerable time.

Mr. Chantray, the celebrated sculptor at Pimlico, near London, is now engaged in preparing a colossal statue of Washington, which he hopes to complete, and send to Boston within the next year. Mr. C. was selected some years ago, by President West, and Washington Alston, Esq. as the European artist best qualified to execute this work, but his other avocations would not permit him to undertake it sooner.

Miscellaneous Items.

The number of Newspapers, chargeable with Postage, sent by mail from the Post Office of Boston, is said to exceed one hundred and sixty thousand in three months, and those which go free of postage exceed forty thousand, in the same time.

The amount of duties, paid by the Auctioneers of the city of New York, for the year ending on the 30th November last, appears, according to the account of the Comptroller, to have been 207,469 dollars and 9 cents.

Two thousand and ten dollars being the nett proceeds of the Military Ball, given at New York on the 8th of January last, have been paid over to the Treasurer of the Greek Fund.

Insurance Offices.—There are in Boston twenty-four Insurance Offices, with an aggregate capital of $7,900,000. Insurance, it is said can be effected in that city for about one half the premium required seven years ago.

Internal Improvement.—In the Virginia Legislature a bill has been introduced which provides a loan for the purpose of internal improvement (relating to the James and Potomac Rivers). It proposes to borrow $3,000,000 on the faith of the state—one million a year for three successive years. It has been passed to a second reading and ordered to be printed.

A rich dashing young fellow of the city of New-York, in rattling along Broadway in a barouche and four at the rate of ten miles an hour, capsized a wagon, and seriously injured the horse and driver. For this frolic he has been obliged to pay the driver $750 damages, besides the costs of a suit, instituted against him by the latter.

Sports of the Pit.—The New-York National Advocate says.—On Friday we learn that twenty-four cocks, twelve on a side, were fought at Hoboken for a very considerable sum of money. Several of the bang-ups were on the spot, and got rid of some of their loose cash. A few swells were also present, who had got thoroughly inoculated with the betting fever at the celebrated race between Eclipse and Henry, and they ventured some Eagle bank notes on the bantams. The sport is a cruel one; for they not only use gaffs, but they pluck the feathers from the rumps of the gallant little birds to clear them for action. We have a suspicion that there was also some cock-fighting, for a heavy sum, on the carpets of a genteel house in this city. A passenger told us that on Thursday night, on the road from Philadelphia, he could not sleep for the crowing of the cocks on the way to the pit.—All the Toms and Jerrys in town were there.

The Navy.—A bill has been reported in the Senate of the United States, for building 10 sloops of war of the first class, to carry not less than 20 guns each, and appropriating $850,000 for the purpose.

Resurrectionist.—Eph. Colburn, convicted at New Haven, (Conn.) of aiding and assisting in removing a body from the place of its interment to the Medical College, has been sentenced to nine months imprisonment in the county jail, and to pay a fine of $300.
